Terms and Conditions for Professional and Short Courses

All Faculty of Life Sciences and Computing professional and short courses are subject to the following standard terms and conditions:

- London Metropolitan University reserves the right to cancel courses where there are insufficient numbers of participants
- Payment for courses must be made in full via eShop at least two weeks before the start of the course. (Please note that deadlines vary from one course to another.)
- Cancellations by the participant must be received in writing two weeks prior to the start of the course.
- There will be no refunds for cancellations received less than 2 weeks prior to the commencement of the course, or once a course has started.
- Any reimbursement of fees is at the discretion of London Metropolitan University.
- If the participant starts the course late for any reason, he/she is still responsible for paying the full course fee.
- Discounted fees are only available to previous or current DEGREE students. Anyone ineligible to pay the discounted fee will be responsible to pay the additional amount, so they have paid the full fee before commencing the course.
- You confirm that you meet the standard entry requirements of the course.
- If you have any disability, you must mention this in your application form so the University can provide you with necessary support.
