

Faculty of Applied Social Sciences

PAUL GILROY

From the sociology of race relations
to the study of multiculturalism

Monday 4 April 2011
12-2PM

London Metropolitan University
Room LH208
Ladbroke House, 62-66 Highbury Grove, London N5 2AD

Paul Gilroy is the first holder of the Anthony Giddens Professorship in Social Theory at the London School of Economics. His intellectual background is multi-disciplinary and he has extensive interests in literature, art, music and cultural history as well as in social science. He is best known for his work on racism, nationalism and ethnicity and his original approach to the history of the African diaspora in the western hemisphere.

Please register at dasslectures@londonmet.ac.uk