

The Norman Stang Research Seminars in Economics
(21st Annual Series), 2009-2010

26 October 2009	Daniela Parker and Photis Lysandrou (CIBS, London Metropolitan University)  'Commercial corporate governance ratings: an alternative view of the function and impact'
7 December 2009	Craig Duckworth (CIBS, London Metropolitan University)  'Climate change policy and the social discount rate: political not ethical'
14 December 2009	Nishaal Gooroochurn and Brinda Sooreea-Bheemul (CIBS, London Metropolitan University)  'Is governance always important in determining FDI and FPI?'
8 February 2009	Jack Winkler (Nutrition Policy Unit, London Metropolitan University)  'Global Food Security'
22 March 2010	Vlasios Voudouris (CIBS, London Metropolitan University)  'Modelling the availability of conventional oil supply: a fused scenario planning and agent-based computational model'
19 April 2010	Peter Wynarczyk (LMBS, London Metropolitan University)  'Wynarczyk on Hirschman: a critical appreciation'
10 May 2010	Thierry Rayna (CIBS, London Metropolitan University)  'Stop blaming it on the artists, or how market concentration has affected the music market'.

The meetings will take place in Stapleton House, Room 304, between 5.00 and 6.30pm. For any additional information contact John Sedgwick by email: j.sedgwick@londonmet.ac.uk