

Networking for those aiming to go self employed: Over 50s workshop

Date: 23rd February, 2012

Are you 50+ looking for some help to go self employed and start up a small business?

Networking skills are key for the self employed, leading to advice, knowledge, ways in to groups where you may find business opportunities. This workshop is for anybody 50+ who is preparing to work for themselves, who has recently started their own business, or who has been working for themselves for some time without realising the benefits that effective networking can bring to them and their business.

Centre for Micro Enterprise \(CME\), part of London Metropolitan University's Business School have teamed up with PRIME (The Princes Initiative for Mature Enterprise) to offer a free workshop on 23rd February.

PRIME is the national organisation for supporting Over 50s into enterprise, and CME has trained over 700 people start up their small businesses.

Time: 9.30 – 4.00

Venue: Stapleton House, Holloway Rd, Room SH2-08 (Nearest tube Holloway Rd)

The workshop is free, however you will be asked to send in a £25 deposit to hold your place on the course; if you do not show up on the day (without cancelling) this cheque will be cashed. If you attend or cancel, the cheque will be destroyed after the workshop date.

This is a great opportunity to get started toward successful self employment in 2012!

Katy Roberts from CME team, who has trained over 200 Over 50s to go self employed, will be delivering the course.
