

Board of Governors Profile

Name

Dr Kay Dudman

Qualifications

PhD Computer Science, Queen Mary College, University of London
BSc (Hons) 1st Class, Business Computing Systems, City University

Staff Governor (Elected)

Career History

- 2000 – date: Principal Lecturer, Dept of Computing, London Metropolitan University (formerly London Guildhall University)
- 1994 – 99 Principal Lecturer, School of Computing Science, Middlesex University (seconded to Centre for Learning Development 1998 – 99)
- 1989 – 94 Lecturer, School of Informatics, Dept of Business Computing, City University
- 1987 – 89 Lecturer, School of Computing and Information Technology, Thames Polytechnic (now University of Greenwich)
- 1982 – 83 Training, Consultancy and Software Development, Unilever International Management Consultants
- 1975 – 80 Executive Officer, Department of Education and Science (seconded to Civil Service Dept: Manpower Planning Practitioner (1976-77))

Other Interests: Including sports, membership of public bodies, governing bodies or charities and community interests:

Ancient languages (Egyptian Hieroglyphs and Cuneiform); small animal care (ABC Awards Level 2 Course in Small Animal Care (veterinary anatomy and physiology)).