Career History

Katherine trained as a Chartered Accountant with Price Waterhouse, leaving in 2001 to join Ernst & Young as a partner in their Fraud Investigation & Dispute Services group, specialising, as its name suggests, in forensic accounting. In this role, she provided financial advice to companies involved in contractual and commercial disputes. She was appointed several times as an expert witness and gave evidence in the witness box on a number of occasions. Katherine withdrew from the partnership at Ernst & Young in December 2008 to spend more time with her family.

Katherine is an Independent Governor of the Conservatoire for Dance and Drama, a Higher Education Institution founded in 2001 to provide conservatoire-level drama, dance and circus training from within a number of affiliate schools, and chairs its Audit Committee.

Katherine is also the Honorary Treasurer of her school old girls' association.
