

The 11th Java & the Internet in the Computing Curriculum Conference (JICC11)

Draft Programme

London Metropolitan University

Friday 26th January 2007

Venue: GC108, The Graduate Centre, Holloway Road, N7 8DB

9.30-9.55	Coffee and registration
9.55-10.00	Welcome by Jeff Naylor Head of Department of Computing, Communications Technology and Mathematics, London Metropolitan University
10.00-10.35	Ian Utting (Invited Speaker) Member of the ACM Java Task Force University of Kent	Problems in the initial teaching of programming using Java: the case for replacing J2SE with J2ME
10.40-11.15	Colin Price University of Worcester	Can the Fine Arts Inform Software Development? (From 20th Century Russian Constructivism to 21st Century Java)
11.15-11.35	Coffee and publisher presentations in the foyer
11.35-12.10	Chrisina Draganova London Metropolitan University	Asynchronous JavaScript Technology and XML (AJAX)
12.15-12.50	Bruce Scharlau University of Aberdeen	Teaching Ruby on Rails
12.50-02.15	Lunch and publisher presentations in the foyer
02.15-02.50	Paul Sant and Des Stephens University of Bedfordshire	Immersive Learning: Introduction to Programming – Java
02.55-03.30	Andrew Scott, Mike Watkins and Duncan McPhee University of Glamorgan	A Step Back from Coding - An Online Environment and Pedagogy for Novice Programmers
03.30-03.45	Coffee and publisher presentations in the foyer
03.45-04.20	Robert Stroud (Invited Speaker) University of Newcastle upon Tyne	Annotations in Java
04.25-05.00	IBM Representative (Invited Speaker)	TBC

General Chair: Sahithi P Siva

Technical Programme Committee Chair: Ken Fisher

Enquiries: Karen Fraser, HEA-ICS

Tel: 02890368938

Organised by the Higher Education Academy (HEA), University of Ulster in co-operation with the ACM SIGs CSE and WEB.

For further details contact Sahithi Siva (s.siva@londonmet.ac.uk; Tel: 02071337041), Ken Fisher (k.fisher@londonmet.ac.uk; Tel: 02071337021) or Krys Granville (Tel: 02071337057)