

Meeting public health challenges in communities: Global perspectives

November 25th 2016

The Great Hall, London Metropolitan University

Time

10:00 Registration and tea/coffee

10:25 Welcome Kelly Cooper, Head of Subject Area

10:30 Introductory comments Dr. Rochelle Ann Burgess

11:00 – 12pm

Session 1: Gender and Sexualities

Session Chair: Professor Cathy Campbell, London School of Economics

11:00- 11:15 Addressing the challenge of Intimate partner violence (IPV) through community mobilisation: A case study from Rwanda
Dr. Jenevieve Mannell, UCL

11:15 -11:30 Addressing common mental health care needs of women with chronic conditions in Dr KK facilities, North West, South Africa
Ms. One Selohilwe, PhD Candidate University of Kwa Zulu Natal

11:30 - 11:45 Fostering Practice-Based Evidence on Youth Sexual Behaviour Interventions: a Case Study from Urban Tanzania
Ms. Claire Coultas, PhD Candidate, London School of Economics

11:45-12:00 Discussion and questions from the floor

12:00

Session 2: Poverty and Participation

Session Chair: Dr. Ruzanna Gevorgyan, London Metropolitan University

12:00 -12:15 Poverty, personhood and rebuilding in post conflict Colombia
Prof. Laura Fonseca, Universidad de la Sabana

12:15- 12:30 integrating anti-poverty and group mobilisation strategies into brief mental health interventions: a South African case study
Dr. Rochelle Ann Burgess, London Metropolitan University

12:30 - 12:45 Questions and discussion

12:45- 1:45 Lunch (provided)

1:45 pm Session 3: Mental health and well-being
Session Chair: Dr. Rosa Hoekastra, Centre for Global Mental Health, Lecturer, King's College London

1:45-2:00 Claiming Rights and Giving Care: Primary Health Settings and the Meaning of "Rights" to carers of people with psychosocial disabilities in Chile
Mr. Christian Montenegro, PhD Candidate, London School of Economics

2:00-2:15 Ethical and sustainable services for mental health and wellbeing in non-western settings
Prof. Suman Fernando, Honorary Professor, London Metropolitan University

2:15-2:30 Rethinking work with communities: Coproduction in 21st century Primary Care
Mr. Malik Gul, Wandsworth Community Empowerment Network, PhD Candidate Imperial College London

2:30- 2:45 Questions and discussion

2:45 - 3:00 Break

3:00 - 4:00 Workshops
From research to action: Scaling in, Scaling up and Scaling out

Workshop 1: Poverty Room: BEL2-02 Natasha Choudary, LMU

Workshop 2: Gender Room: BEL2-10 Dr. Yolanda Eraso, LMU

Workshop 3: Mental health Room: BEL2-04 Jo Turberville, Community Options

4:05 - 4:30 Group feedback and closing remarks (The Great Hall) Dr. Rochelle Burgess